2. Previous share capital

The current share capital of the company amounts to CHF 1,334,576. After the share split in 2019 (ratio 1:10), it is divided into 13,345,760 bearer shares, each nominally priced at CHF 0.10. All shares are fully paid. There are no participation certificates etc.

3. Additional authorized share capital

At the General Assembly on June 28, 2012, new share capital of CHF 400,000 consisting of 400,000 bearer shares with a nominal value of CHF 1 each was authorized in addition to the existing share capital. Of these, already 200,000 shares have been used for the takeover of the Japanese YAMAZAKI-DDS Co. Ltd., and a further 100,000 shares were marked for two capital increases (June 24, 2013 and February 24, 2014). The remaining already authorized share capital with a nominal value of CHF 100,000 was renewed at the General Meeting of June 24, 2014 for a further 2 years. With the following two capital increases (May 26, 2015 and May 31, 2016) a further 71'728 shares were designated. At the General assembly on June 21, 2016, InnoMedica extended and increased the authorized share capital by an additional 2 years. In the capital increase 2017, 75,000 shares were subscribed until May 31, 2017. At the General Assembly on June 20, 2017 the authorized share capital was again extended by additional 2 years and increased. In the two following capital increases (May 31, 2018 and May 31, 2019), a total of 87,848 shares were subscribed. At the General Assembly on June 25, 2019, a resolution was passed on additional authorized share capital with a nominal value of CHF 140,000, consisting of 1,400,000 bearer shares with a nominal value of CHF 0.10 each. Therefore, the Board is authorized to increase the share capital until June 24, 2021, issuing a maximum of 1,400,000 new shares (pursuant to Art. 4 of the Statutes).

According to Art. 4 of the Statute, after the acquisition, the new bearer shares are freely transferable. The issue price, the date of dividend entitlement, and the type of contribution will be determined by the Board.

Existing shareholders have the right to subscribe new shares according to their shares proportionally. Should they not exercise their right after written notification through the Board, the allocation of the new shares is determined by decision of the Board, independent of whether the signatory party was already a shareholder or not.

The last financial statements of InnoMedica Holding AG were completed December 31, 2019. The detailed financial statements can be found in the Annual Report 2019 from InnoMedica Holding AG and is part of this prospectus. The audit report of the auditors (PricewaterhouseCoopers AG, Zurich) for the financial year of 2019 was created on February 27, 2020.

5. Dividend policy

InnoMedica Holding AG has not distributed dividends in the last 5 years. Until the registration of a first product or possible licensings, revenues cannot be expected, and likewise no annual profit.

6. Decision on the issue of new shares

By order of June 24, 2014, the General Assembly has extended, in addition to the existing share capital, an additional authorized share capital of 100,000 new shares (General Meeting on June 28, 2012) for 2 years, of which a total of 28,272 shares was still available at the General Assembly on June 21, 2016. The authorized share capital was extended by an additional 2 years and increased by additional 100,000 shares. At the General Assembly on June, 20 2017 the authorized share capital was extended for 2 years and again increased. At the General Assembly on June 25, 2019, the Board of Directors was authorized to increase the share capital until June 24, 2021 by the issue of 1,400,000 new shares (nominal value CHF 0.10).

6.1 Provisions on the increase of share capital

The Board of Directors has made use of this authorization and set out the necessary provisions for the share capital increase (issue price, type of payment, beginning of dividend entitlement). By resolution of Thursday, March 26, 2020, in consideration of the current corona situation, the conditions of the capital increase 2020 as stated in the Annual Report 2019 were adjusted in accordance with the subsequent offer:

- The issue price of new shares is CHF 27.10 for bearer shares including stamp duty, with a maximum of 1,000,000 shares offered for subscription.
- From April 30, 2020, the newly subscribed and paid shares will be assimilated with the old shares regarding dividend entitlement.
- The shares are to be paid fully in cash

New shareholders can give subsequently after the purchase of shares their personal information to InnoMedica Holding AG and receive communications and notifications by postal mail and/or e-mail. Changes of stored data must be reported to InnoMedica.

6.2 Free subscription and sale

For the subscription of shares, InnoMedica has subscription forms available. The subscription is binding and the corresponding amount must be deposited before the end of the subscription period in the capital contribution account of InnoMedica at UBS Switzerland AG (IBAN: CH03 0023 5235 2621 75D7 L).

6.3 Limitations of the offer

It cannot be excluded that the distribution of this Prospectus and the offering of shares in certain countries are restricted by law. Those persons in possession of this Prospectus are required to inform themselves about such restrictions and comply with them. This Prospectus does not constitute an offer or invitation to purchase shares offered in countries where such an offer or solicitation would be unlawful for any person.

7. Risks of shares

Investing in stocks has an associated risk. It is therefore appropriate to examine whether the shares fit the investors' personal risk profile.
